He exhorted each Chapter in the Northeastern Province to take an active part in the reclamation of our non-sustaining membership. Brother Hamilton called upon the NEP Chapters to recognize achievement in all areas and at all levels of the Fraternity. With black on black crime at an all time high and more black men in jails than in college, the need is critical.”* Striving for unity throughout the Fraternity, Polemarch Moore urged his Kappa Brothers to “put personal and petty differences and internal politics aside and join with him to stay the course until we accomplish our goal of a new direction and increased service to all humanity for our Fraternity.”
